

Arch Enterprises has a full time Community Disability Services Practitioner position. The CDS Practitioner is an experienced role in the field of disability services. Primary work focus is on providing support to individuals with disabilities, conducting assessments, service planning and service plan implementation. Developing and implementing marketing approaches for employment, recreational, and other socially inclusive opportunities; with a view to creating a broader spectrum of options and natural supports in the community. Requirements: Positive Behavior Supports and Risk Assessment experience with adults who have complex needs., Qualifications: Post Secondary education is required. A two year diploma in Disability Studies: Leadership and Community program or equivalent. Mandt Training and/or ACDS Positive Behavior Supports certification.

Apply by email only to:

maggi.hegan@archenterprises.ab.ca

We thank all applicants,however, only potential candidates will be contacted for interviews.